

OUR HISTORY

2002
Acquisition of an interest in the Curamed group of private hospitals in Pretoria, adding six more hospitals.

Acquisition of a 60% interest in Plettenberg Bay Private Health Centre (now Mediclinic Plettenberg Bay). Remaining 40% interest acquired in 2004.

2003
Commissioning of Mediclinic Kloof in Pretoria (as part of the Curamed group), Mediclinic Tzaneen and Mediclinic Howick.

Acquisition of an interest in Mediclinic Victoria (then Victoria Hospital) in Tongaat.

Establishment of Practice Relief, which renders practice administration management services to supporting doctors in Southern Africa.

2004
Acquisition of Mediclinic Swakopmund (then Mediclinic Cottage).

2005
Acquisition of an interest in the Wits Donald Gordon Medical Centre in Johannesburg.

Acquisition of the remaining 40% interest in ER24, the emergency services company, now a wholly-owned subsidiary.

Acquisition of Mediclinic Legae in Mabopane.

R1.1 billion black ownership initiative introducing Phodiso Holdings Limited ('Phodiso') and MP1 Investment Holdings Proprietary Limited (then Circle Capital Ventures Proprietary Limited) as the Group's strategic black partners and shareholders in Mediclinic.

2006
Acquisition of the Protector Group's four hospitals (then with BEE partner Phodiso, who has subsequently sold their interest to Mediclinic).

Conclusion of agreement to acquire a controlling interest in Mediclinic Middle East (then Emirates Healthcare) in Dubai, United Arab Emirates, which then owned one hospital, the rights to develop two further hospitals in the Dubai Healthcare City and five clinics.

2007
Acquisition of a controlling interest in Mediclinic Middle East (then Emirates Healthcare) in Dubai became unconditional.

Mediclinic extends its international operations with the acquisition of a 100% interest in Hirslanden, the leading private hospital group in Switzerland, operating 13 private acute care facilities. This coincided with the 75th anniversary of the group's Klinik Hirslanden.

2008
Division of management and operating structure of the Group into three operating platforms in Southern Africa (Mediclinic Southern Africa), Switzerland (Hirslanden) and the United Arab Emirates (Mediclinic Middle East, then Emirates Healthcare).

Mediclinic celebrates its 25th anniversary.

Opening by Mediclinic Middle East (then Emirates Healthcare) of Mediclinic Mirdif (then Welcare Clinic Mirdif) in Dubai.

Opening by Mediclinic Middle East (then Emirates Healthcare) of Mediclinic City Hospital (then The City Hospital) in the Dubai Healthcare City.

2016
Successful completion of the combination of Mediclinic International Limited and Al Noor Hospitals Group plc by way of a reverse takeover of Mediclinic International Limited, resulting in the continued listing of the enlarged Company on the London Stock Exchange and the secondary listing of the Company on the Johannesburg Stock Exchange and the Namibian Stock Exchange.

2015
Opening by Mediclinic Middle East of Mediclinic Al Hili in Al Ain, United Arab Emirates.

Sale by Mediclinic Southern Africa of Mediclinic Kathu in Kathu, Northern Cape.

Opening by Mediclinic Southern Africa of Mediclinic Midstream in Midstream, Gauteng Province.

Acquisition of a 29.9% interest in Spire Healthcare plc, a UK-based private healthcare group.

Restructure of the MP1 Investment Holdings Proprietary Limited black economic empowerment transaction, initially implemented in 2005.

2014
Opening by Mediclinic Middle East of Mediclinic Corniche in Abu Dhabi, United Arab Emirates.

Acquisition by Hirslanden of a 100% interest in the operating business of Clinique La Colline in Geneva, Switzerland.

Acquisition by Hirslanden of a 100% interest in the operating business of Swissana Clinic AG in Meggen, Lucerne, Switzerland.

Opening by Mediclinic Southern Africa of Mediclinic Gariep in Kimberley, Northern Cape (operated jointly with the existing Mediclinic Kimberley).

Secondary listing of Mediclinic on the Namibian Stock Exchange.

2013
Acquisition by Mediclinic Middle East of the two pathology laboratories at Mediclinic Welcare Hospital and Mediclinic Al Sufouh in Dubai.

Relocation and expansion by Mediclinic Southern Africa of Mediclinic Lephalale in Lephalale, Limpopo.

2012
Acquisition of the minority interest in Mediclinic Middle East (then Emirates Healthcare) increasing its effective shareholding to 100%.

Rebranding of the Company's operations in Dubai from Emirates Healthcare to Mediclinic.

2011
Acquisition by Mediclinic Middle East (then Emirates Healthcare) of the assets of Mediclinic Dubai Mall (then The Dubai Mall Medical Centre), Mediclinic Arabian Ranches (then Arabian Ranches Clinic) and the Mediclinic Meadows (then the Meadows Clinic).

Change of company name and rebranding of the Group's holding company from Medi-Clinic Corporation to Mediclinic International and rebranding of its operations in Southern Africa from Medi-Clinic to Mediclinic.

2010
Opening by Mediclinic Southern Africa of Mediclinic Cape Gate in the northern suburbs of Cape Town.

Acquisition by Hirslanden of a 100% interest in Klinik Stephanshorn in St Gallen, Switzerland.